Defendant.

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES: :

General Allegation

At all times the name "CHRISTOPHER PAUL" is used in this Indictment, it is meant to refer to an individual who was born as "Paul Kenyatta Laws," and who changed his name, by court order, to "Abdulmalek Kenyatta" on March 16, 1989, and who changed his name, by court order, from "Abdulmalek Kenyatta" to "Christopher Paul," on April 28, 1994.

Count 1

Conspiracy to Provide Material Support and Resources to Terrorists

1. Beginning in 1989, the exact date being unknown to the grand jury, and continuing through the present, in the Southern District of Ohio and outside the jurisdiction of any particular state or district, defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, a.k.a Abdul, a.k.a. Abdul Malek, a.k.a. Abdul Malik, a.k.a. Abdul Melik, a.k.a. Abdel Malek, a.k.a. Abdulmaled, a.k.a. Abdul Malek Kenyatta, a.k.a. Paul Kenyatta Laws, a.k.a. Paul Laws, hereinafter "CHRISTOPHER PAUL," a United States citizen subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, did knowingly and unlawfully conspire to provide material support and resources, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2339A(b), with others both known and unknown to the grand jury, by means of providing personnel, namely, himself and others; by providing training and by providing equipment, knowing and intending that such support would be used in preparation for or in carrying out a conspiracy to destroy property and murder and maim persons located outside the United States, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 956,

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 371 and 2339A(a) .

2. It was a part of the conspiracy that defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, in order to materially support terrorists, provided himself to terrorists, both known and unknown to the grand jury, for the commission of violent acts, such as the killing of persons and destruction of property, outside the United States.

3. It was a further part of the conspiracy, that defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, in order to materially support terrorists, traveled outside the United States to meet with a group of radical Islamic fundamentalist terrorists in Germany to provide himself and train them in matters of recruitment and explosives.

4. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, in order to materially support terrorists, provided money and equipment from the United States to places outside the United States.

5. It was a further part of the conspiracy that the defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, in order to materially support terrorists trained others inside the United States in order that these others might be ready to fight violent jihad outside the United States.

OVERT ACTS

6. In furtherance of the conspiracy, and to effect the objects thereof, the following overt acts, among others, were committed in the Southern District of Ohio and elsewhere:

(1) Defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL, who was legally named "Paul Kenyatta Laws" at birth, changed his name to "Abdulmalek Kenyatta," by court order, on March 16, 1989.

(2) Defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL applied for a U.S. passport in the name of "Abdulmalek Kenyatta" on March 28, 1990, requesting expedited issuance for an intended departure date of April 1, 1990. On March 30, 1990, defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL was issued a U.S. passport in the name of "Abdulmalek Kenyatta."

(3) In approximately 1990, the exact date unknown to the grand jury, defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL traveled overseas from the United States for the purpose of obtaining military-type training at a terrorist training camp and to further the purposes of violent jihad.

In late 1990 or early 1991, the exact dates being unknown to the grand jury, defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL traveled to Pakistan and Afghanistan.

(4) During this time period, defendant CHRISTOPHER PAUL offered himself to
