

Statement: On November 26th, 2010, I, Mohamed Mohamed did something that I will forever be ashamed of. I understand alot of people must be upset, hurt and angry. And they have every right to be so. Although the situation is a very horrific one, it entails me to clear up a few things:

- 1) That I renounce all acts of violence ^{especially killing} and ^{innocent} acts of terrorism regardless of their justification, ^{civilian,}
- 2) That the decisions I made don not represent in any way the teachings of Islam and the Quran, But rather the teachings of misguided scholars and individa
- 3) And that they also do not reflect the beliefs and attitudes of the somali and muslim community, as they have made it clear that they want to integrate into American society, not destroy it.
- 4) They also do not reflect the beliefs and attitudes of my family nor my upbringing and if I had followed what my family taught me then I would not have made such a terrible mistake.

I apologize to the American public for my actions and that they received from me anything but the utmost love and respect.

Date 2 12/22

X.
Mohamed Osman Mohamed

statement: On November 26th, 2010, I, Mohamed Mohamud, did something that I will forever be ashamed of. I understand alot of people must be upset, hurt, and angry. And they have every right to be so. Although the situation is a very horrific one, it entails me to clear up a few things:

- 1) That I renounce all acts of violence and especially killing innocent civilians, acts of terrorism regardless of their justification.
- 2) That the decisions I made do not represent in any way the teachings of Islam and the Quran. But rather the teachings of misguided scholars and individuals.
- 3) And that they also do not reflect the beliefs and attitudes of the Somali and Muslim community, as they have made it clear that they want to integrate into American society, not destroy it.
- 4) They also do not reflect the beliefs and attitudes of my family nor my upbringing and if I had followed what my family taught me then I would not have made such a terrible mistake.

I apologize to the American public for my actions and that they received from me anything but the utmost love and respect.

Date: 12/22

x [signature] _____
Mohamed Osman Mohamud